Hinds Junior College

Raymond, Mississippi

The Eagle

Mary Lou Kersh reigns as queen of the College Homecoming.

Salute to the High School Queen!

HOMECOMING

Queen Carolyn looks composed but Kendall and Homer are still breathless.

CHRISTMAS

Christmas Open House in Main Dormitory.

Judges for the Art Club Christmas posters.

Christmas dinner with all the trimmings.

Hinds' Jazz Band

Coffee break for the music faculty.

BOYS' QUARTET

Bill Cole, Charles Wicker, Foy Scroggins, Jesse Sarrett, Martha Gillespie, Pianist.

DEDICATION

For his constant watch and care over us during the hours of sleep, we the staff members take great pleasure and pride in dedicating this issue of The Eagle to Mr. Fitzhugh Herron. There is never a night too wet or cold to find Mr. Herron and his dog Honey on the job. For ten years without missing a single night for vacation or illness, we salute you, Mr. Herron!

FACULTY

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

TRADITION:

The culture of a people is a heritage of many facets. We believe in and live by the principles and traditions handed to us by our forefathers and each generation modifies those in accordance with conditions imposed on them by many circumstances.

We citizens of the United States have inherited a tradition of freedom in many directions: religion, politics, business, education, and social life. We of the South still live too close to the terrible days of Reconstruction, of poverty, hard work, and bitter words and deeds that profoundly affect our philosophies. But in this time of recurring bitterness and strife, we shall not forget that our tradition also includes great patience and forbearance from impetuosity and graciousness in the face of pettiness and shrillness from others.

FRESHMAN DAY AT HINDS

Does he meet with your approval, Billie Jean?

Give us a speech, Sybil.

FEATURES

MELVIN OAKES

Hidden behind a quiet, unassuming personality, Melvin possesses a keen mind and a leadership ability that won for him a place of honor from his fellow students.

Achieving success in any endeavor, be it athletic or scholastic, is proof that Melvin is worthy of all the trust vested in him and the responsibility placed upon him.

MR. H.J.C.

MISS H.J.C.

A lovely smile and a twinkling eye identify Glenda. This charming Miss is always on hand to help those she can. No wonder our students chose her as Miss HJC! We don't know much about her life in Porterville but at Hinds she has made quite a record with every minute filled with clubs, plays, or classes.

To Glenda, we doff our hats.
